22nd May, 1974.

Mr. M.A. Jones,
North American Representative,
New Zealand Meat Producers Board,
NEW YORK.

Dear Mr. Jones,

Following your appointment as North American Representative I now set out your terms and conditions of employment:-

1. The North American office will be located in New York.
2. The North American Representative will be responsible to the Board through the General Manager in carrying out the functions required by the Board in North America.

The Board will make all major policy decisions such as determining who will be advertising and public relations agencies, the general strategy of the promotional activities and the numerical size and composition of the staff in your office.

3. (a) Your basic salary will be $NZ.12,000.
(b) Basic salary plus entertainment and representation allowances will amount in total to $25,000.

In addition, the Board will pay an allowance equivalent to $NZ.600 per annum for each dependent child under 19 years of age.

- (c) The Board will defray the cost of medical, hospital and accident insurance for yourself, your wife and dependent children under 19 years of age. As appropriate insurances for the foregoing are unlikely to cover total costs, the Board will meet two-thirds of any additional costs not covered by insurance.
- (d) Travel expenses will be met by the Board and a daily allowance, as fixed by the Board from

NEW YORK

LINCOLN BUILDING
60 EAST 42ND STREET
NEW YORK, N.Y. 10017
U.S.A.

LONDON

CHANCERY HOUSE

6-CHOME, CHUO-KU,
TOKYO, JAPAN

time to time, will be payable by the Board whilst you are travelling away from home on Board business. Should it be necessary for your wife to accompany you, travelling expenses will be met by the Board and the daily allowance for yourself and your wife will be at the rate fixed as above, plus $US.20.

- (e) The Board will meet business entertainment lunch and dinner expenses provided they are properly documented.
 - (f) A rent free furnished house or apartment and a car will be provided by the Board. The Board's prior approval to be obtained to the expenditure involved in these matters. While the Board provides you with rent free accommodation, various items such as blankets, linen, cutlery, crockery and so on will be your responsibility.
 - (g) At home, four guests and under for meals and six guests and under for drinks, would be a charge against your entertainment allowance. Larger parties would be a charge against the Board.
- 4. The term of your appointment is indefinite. The Board in its absolute discretion retains the right to return you to New Zealand at any time.
 - 5. In addition to any visits by you to New Zealand at the Board's request, the Board will meet approved travel and daily allowances in respect of home leave for yourself, your wife and dependent children under the age of 19 years, at approximately three yearly intervals.
 - 6. The Board will continue to meet the costs involved for the membership of you and your wife at the Bonnie Briar Country Club as already approved.

Within the next few months the Board will be reviewing the salaries and allowances of its overseas representatives.

Would you please advise me whether you accept the foregoing terms.

Yours sincerely,

H.C.M. Douglas
General Manager.
